

Mr Ewan G Kemp is a Consultant Ophthalmic Surgeon based at the Tennent Institute of Ophthalmology in Glasgow. As Service Director of the Scottish Ophthalmic Oncology Service his tertiary referral practice includes Ocular Tumours, Oculoplastic Surgery and Orbital Disease. These complementary disciplines generate a broad referral base within Scotland and produce significant clinical research and support a Fellow's programme.

He has published 74 papers, 2 book chapters and is a Section Editor for the BJO. He has presented to Learned Societies both nationally and internationally and is a member of the European

Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, the American Academy of Ophthalmology, Royal College of Surgeons (Edinburgh), Royal College of Ophthalmologists (London) and the British Oculoplastic Surgery Society