

Olga Lukáts

Born: 03.07.1952 Pécs Hungary

Education: 1976 Semmelweis University Budapest

Workplace:

1976-1980 Department of Anatomy Semmelweis University

1980 Department of Ophthalmology Semmelweis University, Budapest

Language skill: English, Russian

Board examination: 1984 ophthalmology

Position: leader of an university ward / leader of the Oncological and Oculoplastic Team

Teaching: teach hungarian and foreign students

Lecturing: hold lectures for foreign and hungarian students

Tutor: recently 2 residents

Research field: periorbital malignant tumors , reconstruction after periorbital injuries,

Surgical activity: periorbital malignant tumors, eyelid malformations, congenital eyelid disorders, periorbital malformations after injuries, rehabilitation of patients suffered from postenucleation socket syndrome, intraorbital implants

Modifications of 7 surgical procedures

12 surgical procedures which were first used in Hungary

Scientific membership:

Hungarian Ophtalmological Society

Hungarian Oncological Society

European Assotiation for Cancer Research (EACR)

Hungarian Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery

Internatonal Confedereation for Plastic reconstructive & Aesthetic Surgery (IPRAS)

European Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery (ESOPRS)