

Ioannis Mavrikakis was born in Athens. He graduated from Charles University, Prague. He received his general ophthalmic training in the UK. He has completed two Oculoplastic fellowships in the UK, at Sussex Eye and Queen Victoria Hospital. In addition, he has completed an orbital fellowship at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada. He has been awarded two PhD's from the University of Athens. He has over 60 publications, contributed book chapters, and is a reviewer in numerous scientific journals. Ioannis Mavrikakis is current president of the Hellenic

Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery and committee member of ESOPRS.