

Dr. Quaranta-Leoni attended a two-year Fellowship in Oculoplastic, Lacrimal and Orbital Surgery at Moorfields Eye Hospital – London in 1995-97. He is the Director of the Adnexal Service in the Dept. of Ophthalmology of Villa Tiberia Hospital in Rome and has a commitment to teaching, actively participating in residents training in adnexal disease. He is the President of the Italian Oculoplastic Surgery Society (SICOP) for the years 2016-2018, full Member of ESOPRS (Italian Committee Member in 2005-2009), International Associate Member of ASOPRS, past Secretary of SICOP (2006-2009). In 2014 he has been chosen to receive the ASOPRS Merrill Reeh Pathology Award.