

Suat Hayri Uğurbaşı, MD, is a Professor of Ophthalmology at Department of Ophthalmology, Bülent Ecevit University, Zonguldak, Turkey.

He graduated from Hacettepe University, Faculty of Medicine in Ankara (1990) and completed ophthalmology residency in Ankara University, Department of Ophthalmology (1996). He finished his fellowship in Orbital and Ophthalmic Plastic surgery department of Jules Stein Eye Institute, UCLA in Los Angeles in 2002. He had an MS degree from the Studies on Science and Technology Policies program at Middle East Technical University, Ankara.

He is an active member of Oculoplastic Section of Turkish Society of Ophthalmology and full member of European Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeons since 1999. He has been past president of International Society of Dacryology and Dry Eye between the years 2008-2011.

Current research areas are dry eye, lacrimal surgery, oculofacial rejuvenation and orbital disorders.