

Daniel Briscoe is Ophthalmology Department Chairman at Emek Hospital in Northern Israel, and a member of Technion Faculty of Medicine. Dr. Briscoe runs one of the largest Oculoplastic and Orbital surgical services in Israel. He was Head of the Israeli Society of Oculoplastic and Reconstructive Surgery twice, and has trained Ophthalmologists in Oculoplastic Surgery from countries including, Greece, Burma, Turkey, and China. Dr Briscoe serves on the International Taskforce Committee for an ICO Oculoplastics Subspecialty Curriculum, and the Israeli Scientific Council Board for Professional Examinations. He is active internationally including Vice President of the OOG, organizing numerous International Courses.