

CURRICULUM VITAE

Miss Jane Olver FRCS FRCOphth Consultant Ophthalmologist

Overview:

Jane Olver has been a Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon at Imperial Healthcare NHS Trust, London, since 1994, and opened the private clinic, Clinica London in 2011 where she is the Medical Director.

She specialises in endoscopic lacrimal surgery (scar-less) for watering eyes in adults and children. She has vast experience in general ophthalmology and is a recognised as a leading specialist in the following areas: oculoplastic, eyelid, lacrimal (tear duct) and cosmetic eyelid surgery.

Jane Olver was awarded the Oxford Ophthalmological Congress Founders Prize in 1989 for her work on anatomical casting of the ocular vasculature. She completed her specialist fellowship training at Moorfields Eye Hospital in Oculoplastic, Lacrimal and Orbital Diseases (Adnexal) and Paediatric Ophthalmology.

Miss Jane Olver learnt how to perform scar-less surgery for watering eyes in Boston and set up the lacrimal service at the Western Eye Hospital and Charing Cross Hospital, This interest in lacrimal and teaching led to her write the book "Colour Atlas of Lacrimal Surgery" in 2002 and her becoming a leader in Oculoplastic and Lacrimal surgery in the UK. In 2000 she co-founded the British Oculoplastic Surgery Society as Founding Secretary and was closely involved in writing the BOPSS constitution and setting up the successful annual BOPSS meetings.

Jane Olver is now in full time private practice at Clinica London she continues to have a busy oculoplastic and lacrimal service, medical and surgical aesthetics as well as lecture internationally. See website: www.clinicalondon.co.uk
