*F.R.C.Ophth., F.R.C.S., B.M., B.S., B.Med. Sci., Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon
Royal Eye Infirmary, Derriford Hospital*

Mr Thaller has been working as a Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon at the Royal Eye Infirmary, Plymouth, UK, since 1987, having previously benefitted from a fellowship under Prof Richard Collin. He enjoys teaching and is an honorary fellow and clinical teacher at the University of Plymouth Peninsula Medical School. He is an active member of BOPSS, and ESOPRS and is keen to promote simplified, safe and effective eyelid surgery, challenging some currently accepted beliefs and practices.
