

CV Dr. Marlise Zürcher Schüpfer

Medical education at University of Bern, Switzerland as a MD and being entitled with a Doctor degree in medicine at the faculty of medicine of Berne University 1983. Specialisation in Ophthalmology in Lucerne and Winterthur (Prof. Hatt). Fellowship in Oculoplastic Surgery 1989 and 1992 at Moorfields Eye Hospital London (Prof. JRO Collin). Research at the Institute of Ophthalmology in the field of Sebaceous Carcinoma (Prof.

Garner). Since 1993 position as educating consultant in Oculoplastic Surgery at the Augenklinik Kantonsspital Lucerne, Switzerland (largest Ophthalmic clinic in Switzerland), Hirslanden Clinic St. Anna in Lucerne, Kantonsspital Obwalden in Sarnen. Member of the oculoplastic group of the Swiss Ophthalmology Society. Co-organiser of several Swiss general ophthalmology meetings. Member of the committee ESOPRS 2012 – 2016. Organiser of the 26th annual meeting of ESOPRS 2008 in Lucerne, Switzerland.

Dr. Zürcher is married and a mother of a 22 years old daughter studying medicine at the university of Bern medical school. She loves photography, cooking and traveling all over the world. She is also engaged in the social works of Soroptimist, a service club for women.