

Panagos Arvanitis, MD, PhD, FEBO

Trained as an ophthalmologist in the Athens University Eye Clinic (1991-1994). Specialized in Strabismus and Oculoplastic Surgery at the same Clinic (1994-1996). Trained in Oculoplastic Surgery with Dr. Albert Hornblass in Manhattan Eye, Ear & Throat Hospital and with Dr. Robert Della Rocca in New York Eye & Ear Infirmary (1995 & 1998). He is founder member of Hellenic Society of Ophthalmic Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery, member of European Strabismological Association (ESA), member of International Society of Orbital Disorders (ISOD). He specializes in Oculoplastic Surgery (especially in Eyelid Surgery) and in Strabismus Surgery. He has a special interest in Oculoplastic Surgery in craniofacial anomalies (He is the specialized ophthalmologist of the Hellenic Craniofacial Center since 1997). Panagos Arvanitis is in private practice in Athens since 1994, having performed thousands of oculoplastic operations.